28/11/4 + 5456

Håkon Andressen

→ 513 ml 10 °C

Paper by Birtheola

Problem = lack of resources and skills prevent health workers to access necessary knowledge.

Solution = in Ethiopia the

Frugally

A method of cleaning cassava is discovered and tested in Ethiopia.
Problem = in an environment of few resources and poor infrastructure, is it possible to develop a system of knowledge transfer?

Hypothesis = Video-based training experiments to.

evaluation = lower cost, less time, better learning.
Problem
Research shows lack of resource and poor infrastructure prevent people from being HIV.

Hypothesis
Video training can help.

Expected results
Expected is increased access, positive results, lower cost, less drain, better living.

Discussion
Is this a special case, or should it work in general?